This position provides support, mentoring, education, skill-building, advocacy, and youth-guided programming to persons receiving services at the Community Drop-In Youth TAY Center located in the Behavioral Health Division at the Glenn County Health and Human Services Agency. The incumbent will work as part of Behavioral Health with the Transition Age Youth Team delivering outreach/engagement and supportive service to youth and families on school campuses, in the community, and/or at the TAY Center. Individuals between the ages of sixteen and twenty-four (16-24) years of age are encouraged to apply. This position is at-will, temporary, part-time and scheduled for up to twenty-five (25) hours per week.

THE IDEAL CANDIDATE

The ideal candidate will have lived experience of resiliency and/or recovery from a mental health challenge.

JOB DUTIES

- Model unconditional commitment to assisting the TAY consumers in “tough time”, “over the long haul” and to do “whatever it takes” to provide service to the client/consumer.
- Perform group education for clients/consumers and/or support persons and provide ongoing support as needed.
- Be available for TAY consumers, in the event of a crisis, for support.
- Set up, prepare, and plan events for TAY consumers and TAY drop-in center guests.
- Represent concerns of the TAY consumers in policy and program planning meetings.
- Coordinate activities with other agencies/individuals engaged in providing or developing support for the TAY consumers who are in the program.
- Make program presentations to community stakeholders and groups.
